

The American public deserves the right for free speech and the right to decide from facts about who they will elect as our next president. The media clearly has a democratic bias (as evidenced by abc and cbs scandals) and I am pleased to see that we may be able to hear something that is factual and from the Sinclair company. I feel this is information I need to know to make a decision before I vote. I support your allowing Sinclair to play the Kerry movie.